

The Story of Job – Leadership Education for the Luckiest Man in the World

Adam Andrews, Director

The Center for Literary Education

1. Introduction: Job the Knowledgeable
  - a. Job was a righteous man – what does this mean?
  - b. Job’s conduct regarding his children
  - c. Job’s assumptions about the world
2. The Lesson Begins: Job’s tribulations
  - a. What did Job lose besides his possessions?
  - b. What did Job maintain in spite of these trials?
3. Study Sessions: Job and His Comforters
  - a. A prolonged argument
  - b. An unexpected agreement
4. Flunking the Midterm: Job’s Complaint
  - a. “This isn’t fair, because I knew the rules!”
5. An Emergency Tutor: Elihu’s Contribution
6. Final Exam Time: The Examiner Appears
7. A Surprising A+
8. Job the Graduate
  - a. Leadership is the prize of true education
9. Observations on Education and Leadership